

Brian Hourigan

Varsity Baseball Coach

Masuk High School – Monroe, CT

Coach Hourigan has coached high school baseball for 22 years, 17 of those as a head varsity coach.

He was an assistant at Masuk High School (Monroe, Connecticut) for 4 years before taking the head coaching job at Oxford High School (Oxford, Connecticut) in 2008, when the school first opened. Coach Hourigan served as the school's first baseball coach, starting with the junior varsity team in 2008 and then moving to varsity in 2009. He coach at Oxford through the 2019 season. During that time, Oxford High School won the 2013 Class S State Championship, the 2016 NVL League Championship, and Division Titles in 2016 and 2017.

In 2020, Coach Hourigan took over as the varsity head coach at Masuk High School. Masuk won a Division Title in 2021 and they were the SWC runners up in 2022.

In addition to being the varsity baseball coach, Brian also is in his first year as athletic director at Masuk. Before becoming the athletic director, he taught physics at Masuk for 22 years. During his playing days, he was a pitcher at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst for four years, earning a degree in physics.

#####